NewYork—Some big important interests that have been builtsh ill last few days are now lined up on the bear side, stating that no market out be builted with money at 8 per cent continuously—Fallon to S. & G.

New Orleans—Savannah clears 11,000 bales for foreign export. This day last year total shipments were 19,641. Forligh exchange is very weak this morning; sterling is off a cent at 1.52, francing 13 points down to 12.06 and marks are 12 points down at 1.29 — S. & G. New York-Kansas City federal re serve bank increase discount rate to six per cent commercial paper; sterling exchange quoted 3.52; neutral ex-changes demoralized for first time to-day.—Hubbard to Reese.

New Orleans—Big break in marks to S; suggestive of unfavorable situation Europe.—Kofler, in Europe.—Kofler,

New Orleans—The world is becoming interested in new crop outlook, as a large crop will probably be required next season. A yield of 13,000,000 bales would likely figure as a short crop in commensurate with trade requirement next season, which will probably be larger than requirements this season. In the past a 13,000,000 bale crop was considered an average yield. Now 14,000,000 would be considered a moderate crop, 15,000,000 a large one.—Beer to McFall.

New York—Just received following

New York—Just received following wire from Waco, Tex: "Texas general-by cloudy, misting; Central Texas heavy rains general over state during night. Temperatures around 35 to 40. Rains Temperatures around 35 to 40. Rains continue over state, some parts Contral Texas reporting as much as four inches, and bullish reports being wired market centers from Texas on account of too much rain; however, think it's little too early in the game for it to be bullish feature as much grain be forced into cotton provided rains continue fortnight and labor ample to put the acreage in.

New Orleans—January in final liqui-dation, like its predecessors, received the level of middling spots today, last January notice day next Monday. New York-No news, except peace treaty prospects not so good; very small market.-Cleve.

New Orleans-Attitude railroad unions disturbing; unfavorable weather and steadiness spots should sustain the market. We continue to look for higher market.—White to Cotter & Turner. New York—Bipartisan treaty confer-sice called off by Senator Lodge; no time set for another meeting.—Hub-

Chicago—Marshall Field & Co., in their weekly review of the dry goods trade, say: Current wholesale distribu-tion of dry goods has been heavy and much ahead of the corresponding week of last year. Orders from salesmen on the road, both for immediate and fu-ture delivery were greatly in group of ture delivery, were greatly in excess of the total for the same period of last year. More customers were in the house, and the retail trade generally reports business continuing excellent. Collections are very satisfactory.

Grain.

Chicago.—Corn and oats strong on light receipts, had weather and belief cars continue scarce. Chicago oats receipts very light at 65 cars. Corn light at 120 cars. Car notices show hig efforts being made to move corn. Ourside markets outbid Chicago corn this morning for corn and oats. Springfield, Ill., says country not selling corn on this advance. No relief in car situation down this says—Wagner & Co. to N. & G.

Minneapolis — Only 14 out of 26 mills running and several more will close to-night account railroads unable to handle their products — Wild.

Chicago.—It is report that New York Central road has listed embargo against shipments east of Buffalo.— Babcock to Clark & Co.

Chicago — Armour & Co. review says: Hors have been sharply higher this week, selling up to a top record for the packing season. This has naturally resulted in stronger and higher barkets for cured products, which have for some time been selling below legitimate manufacturing costs. Domestic demand for hams and other sugar cured amoked meats has been of increasing volume. The fresh pork market is steady with very strong demand and heavy shipments.

Grain belt forecast North and South Dakota, Nebraska—Fair tonight, Sun-day light show. Slowly rising temper-atures Sunday, Rest belt: Cloudy and colder tenight; Sunday fair.

New York.—People ask why motor stocks are weak. Our reasoning on this subject is same as a month ago. We think motor stocks are selling too high in comparison with steel stocks, for instance.—Hutton to McFall.

stance.—Hutton to McFall.

Chicago.—With the worst bilizzard of the seasou moving eastward to be followed by a protracted period of cold weather, the movement of all freight from the Wost and to the East is expected to be curtailed. This removed pressure of grain and created uncasiness among the shorts yetserday who hid prices up in covering. Many herestofore bears changed to the bull side, as they saw no prospects of the long booked for big movement of grains from the country. the country.

Stocks.

New York.—The Crucible Steel com-pany sent out notices to stockholders that a special meeting will be held on Peb. 18 to take action on a resolution adopted by board of directors to in-crease the common stock from $25,000,-000 to $75,000,000.

Thoughts for the Quiet Hour G. W. K.

One of the easiest things in the world to do is to be kind. It doesn't require money, nor do we have to be possessed with any special talents or qualifications to be able to manifest this spirit in our lives. It pays; in fact, we know of nothing that pays better. And yet there is great lack of it in the world today; hence its importance cannot be too strongly emphasized.

Not a great while ago we witnessed a sight that fairly made our blood boil with indignation. Into a large mercantile establishment there came a poor cripple begging alms. He was exceptionally quiet and polite, and his pitiable condition appealed to many of the customers at that time in the store. But he had been there only a short time when one of the proprietors approached him, and in a very gruff, ungentlemanly way, led him to the door and pushed him out into the street with a severe rebuke, and at the same time warned him never to return there again. Here was a man, very prominent on Sundays in the services of his church, with an opportunity given him to manifest the Christ spirit to a poor, unfortunate fellow being. In doing it, he not only would have brought joy and gladness and happiness into the man's life, but also would have secured for himself the assurance of the blessed "inasmuch" of his Lord and Master! A kind word, a sympathetic look, a helping hand, was what was needed, rather than what was given. This thought: What would Jesus have done under the circumstances? We know. The admonition is very clearly given us in God's word to "bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of ('hrist.' In doing this we are following very closely the footsteps of Jesus, and laying up treasures for ourselves in heaven. Kindness can be practiced by us until it becomes a fixed habit of our lives. The habit, once formed, becomes one of our greatest blessings, and means much to us in the building up of strong Christian characters.

But there is a kind of kindness in the world that counts for little and means little, either to the one who practices it, or the one who receives it. It is the kindness without the heart in it. It lacks warmth, it lacks depth, it lacks love. The kindness that really blesses is but the outward expression of a heart filled with love. Much passes for kindness that really is not, because it is madifested through self-interest and hope of reward.

There is a kind of "rocking-chair kindness" in the world today, which sighs and mouns to hear of the want and woe of the world, and wipes its eyes, and-rocks on. The kindness of our God, which we are to imitate, seeks for objects. We wait too long to show kindness to our friends and loved ones. It should be manifested in the lifetime of the recipient. What is most needed is not our flowers upon the grave, but in the life. Such expressions of kindness will make believers out of sinners.

When Robert Raikes gathered the poor, ragged children of his community into the Sunday school and taught them God's word; when George Mueller took, care of two thousand helpless children in his home; when Wesley Hved on one article of diet for months, that he might help the poor—they did more to prove the love of Jesus than a thousand sermons! God help us to be gentle, to be loving, to be tender, to be affectionate, to be kind!

'So many gods, so many creeds So many ways that wind and wind; When all that this old world needs. Is just the art of being kind! The McLemore Avenue Christian Church. Memphis, Jan. 24, 1920.

INFLUENZA AND LAGRIPPE

What to Do for It and Prevent It

Order from your druggist a 25-cent box of Hambleton's Quick Kold - Knps. One dose gives almost instant relief, relieves the fever, aching, speezing and cold with the first or second dose. One dose taken each night at bedtime is an excellent preventive.

Hambleton's KOLD-RUB should be used also. Rub well on chest, throat and back between the shoulders, or apply on woolen cloth around neck and chest. This aids in loosening the cold, relieving the soreness or pains and clearing the head. Leave cloth loose about the throat, allowing the patient to breathe the vapor freely. This treatment each night at bedtime is a good preventive. Kold-Rub sells 25c a bottle.

Mr. Cotton Planter

Your Low-Grade Cotton Is Your Profit

It takes the good grades to pay your expenses for making a crop. Don't sacrifice your profit by selling in a lump or round lots, but ship it to us where we will find the best market for every bale. It is our business to find the one who needs to buy what you have for sale. Ship your cotton to us and we will convince you that it pays to consign low-grade and irregular running cotton.
